

MILLIONS OF

WHEELER & WILSON

Rotary Hook

Lock Stitch

Sewing Machines

have been sold during the past half century, affording gratification and satisfaction to the users.

The Rotary Hook is as far ahead of the shuttle as a circular buzz saw is ahead of a cross cut saw—and for the same reason—the Rotary Hook with its continuous motion admits of a greater speed and eliminates vibration, so trying on the nerves.

PORTLAND.

Christmas has passed away quietly, 1905 is gone but will ever be remembered.

The health of this community is good at present.

Jim Cadwell was at Gradyville the first of the on week business.

R. L. Davis visited the family of Dr. J. J. Booker one day this week.

Mr Lewis Compton visited the family of Mr Cris Jones at Exie one day this week.

Miss Starlight Smith, of Columbia, has returned home after an extended visit to Mr. Alfred Parsons.

Mrs. Emily Burton visited the family of Mr. S. D. Caldwell during the holidays.

Mr. W. C. Yates and wife visited friends and relatives at Gradyville one day this week.

Mr. T. E. Waggner and wife visited friends and relatives at Columbia one day this week.

Mr. J. W. Townsend and wife, of Milltown, visited relatives here during the holidays. We are always glad to have Uncle John and Aunt Sena with us.

Mr. John H. Caldwell, who has been at Carrollton Missouri, for over a year returned home Christmas. He is looking well and says Missouri is a fine State.

The social given at Joe. H. Cadwell's was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Mollie Cadwell entertained quite a number of her young friends during the holidays.

Virven Compton, Rollin and Rufus Caldwell entered the M. and F. High School Monday.

Mr. R. L. Davis sold his crop of tobacco to S. D. Caldwell at satisfactory prices.

Mr. Jas. Caldwell and Bros., have a very large crop of burley tobacco for sale.

If you want a nice medallion give your picture to Alfred Parson of this place he certainly knows his business.

If you have any furs for sale bring them to Lewis Compton he will pay you a good price for them.

Mr George Henry Squires entered the M. and F. High School at Columbia Monday.

We gladly welcome Mr. Frank Cobb and wife to our community. We hope they will be well pleased with their new home which has everything to make life happy.

Mr Robert Walker of Mexico, and sister Bess visited their aunt of this place X-mas. Robert looks well and tells many interesting things about the people of Mexico.

A new baby at R. L. Davis', Owen Diddle.

Mr. Bob Smith of Columbia visited relatives at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Cobb lost a very fine young mare Saturday night. It is supposed she was shot while in pasture.

If you want a good machine to drill wells, call on Mrs Etta Cadwell Portland.

Wishing a prosperous new year to the worthy Editor and every reader of the news.

DIRIGO.

Notwithstanding the season of the year, the health of the community is very good.

J. M. Campbell and J. W. McClister transacted business, at Columbia last Friday.

Our merchants, McClister and Pulliam, are having a good trade now.

Milton Polston and family, of Amandaville, visited Hiram Stotts last week.

Mr. J. W. Campbell who has been sick for several days last week has about recovered.

Mr. Ol McClister, Gadberry, visited his brother, J. W. McClister, this place a few days last week.

Our mill men are doing a fine business. They are rapidly converting the timber into lumber, most of which goes to Nashville markets.

As Dirigo is a new place perhaps some of the readers would be glad to know where it is. It is on Harrods Fork, near the old monument—one of the grandest natural scenes in the commonwealth. Although a new town we have one dry-goods store, a Post-Office two saw mills and one grist mill in operation, and another to start in the near future.

Parker Myres and family who have been citizens of this community for the past two years, removed to Sparksville last week.

Landy Stotts and J. G. Campbell are each erecting new residences here. They intend to occupy by early spring.

Shelby Royse, our up-to-date photographer spent several days last week in Cumberland county.

Scoffers, who doubt that prayer is answered when the petition is made in the right spirit, may now take a back seat, for a most convincing example occurred here Sunday night. Some days ago a prominent gentleman in town lost a valuable note. It represented several hundred dollars, and the loss of it meant worry and inconvenience. He searched his office thoroughly, the home, and everywhere he was likely to have misplaced it, but no note came to light. He finally gave it up as lost. Sunday night he and his good wife attended the Methodist church, and something in Rev. Vaughan's splendid sermon re-inspired their faith. On reaching home his wife said: "I shall kneel down and pray earnestly that you may find that note, and I believe the Lord will answer it." She thereupon knelt and sent up an eloquent and fervid appeal to the Great White Throne, and they both retired, comforted to a restful and peaceful night the first they had spent since the note disappeared. The next morning the gentleman went to his office and unthinkingly walked straight to the place where some old papers had been stored, and picked up the lost note. It was in an out-of-the-way place, where he would never in the world have thought of looking for anything so valuable. He is confident it was in answer to his wife's prayer that the Lord so quickly and unerringly directed his feet in the right direction.—Harrodsburg Herald.

GLENVILLE.

Miss Minnie Willis is quite sick.

Mr. Charley Walkup passed peacefully away Saturday the 6th. Cause of his death was pneumonia.

Miss Annie Collins is very sick with typhoid fever.

Miss Fay Cane who has been sick for quite awhile, we are glad to say is improving.

Conda Blair and Velmer Antle made a flying trip to Lebanon Jan. the 6th.

Eli Strange opened his winter school at this place Jan. 8.

Melvin E. Blair sold John Chapman 9-head of hogs for 33 cents per pound.

Miss Sallie Thomas, of Jeffersonville, Ind., is visiting relatives in this community.

On Dec 31st., at Dr. W. M. Blair's quite a number of relatives met Miss Blair's brother and niece, who live in Texas, and a most excellent dinner was prepared.

Mr. Stephen V. Wilkinson, who has been talking of buying property in Columbia, has about decided to stay on his farm at Glensfork. He has erected a very desirable wood-house, F. Conover being the boss carpenter.

Mr. L. J. Wilkinson is making an addition to his house when it is finished it will be almost as good as new.

Mrs. Mary L. Wheat fell the other day and fractured her collar bone. She is slowly improving.

Little Miss Clara and Mattie Blair visited Mrs. Phelps Saturday evening.

H. K. Taylor has erected him a new blacksmith shop in this town. He is equipped with a new set of tools, so he is ready to do your work when you call on him.

The Masonic Brethern have finished their new hall at this place.

Mr. Willie Garnett who has been very low with fever is improving slowly.

On Dec. 20th, there was a message come to Mrs. Etta Wilkinson stating that her brother Mr. James Wilborn was dead. He passed peacefully away at his home, Highland Falls, N. Y. the cause of his death was pneumonia. Mr Wilborn leaves a wife and a number of sorrowing relatives to mourn their loss. He lived on Glensfork until he was about 18 years of age. He has belonged to the standing army about 20 years and was still a soldier when the Death angel called him home. We know we shall never see him on earth any more, I hope we will meet him on that beautiful shore where sad partings come no more.

What the Editors Say.

"After all what is the difference," says the Winchester Sun-Sentinel. "Paynter is as good as Blackburne, and Blackburn as good as Paynter."

Democrats, according to the Winchester Sun-Sentinel, never know about anything until after it is done, and then they raise a howl about it.

State press publishing statements of interior towns banking institution showing all to be in a most prosperous condition, and declaring dividends on stock.

The Maysville Ledger would like to know if there isn't one man in the Kentucky Legislature who has nerve sufficient to introduce a strictly non-partisan election law and by it immortalize himself.

The Stanford Interior-Journal says that because of the resignation of O. G. Harrison, of the McKinney Deposit Bank, the directors would be glad to communicate with a good sober, reliable man to succeed him.

Owingsville Outlook says the prohibitionists will have a hard fight when they attempt to vote the sale of intoxicants out of Montgomery county, and especially in Mt. Sterling.

Owensboro declares against Judges of the courts mixing in politics. The "Judge who will drag the bench into politics," says the paper, "will not mind the statute on the subject."

Voting machines, at a cost of $600 per, the Grayson Tribune regards it as a piece of economy to let the machine which has been doing the counting for the 2,000 voting precincts continue and wait until it slips a cog, which is bound to wreck it.
